You have heard about and maybe even seen pictures of the Barbie's. Well here is your chance to obtain one. Dress to impress! Barbie's are given in many different categories. If you are planning on going please go to www.h3sob.com and look for the link to the Miniskirt run. There you will find a link to let us know you are Cumming so that we may have enough food for all that attend. Check the pictures from last year's event to get an idea of what it takes to win a Barbie. Hotels are a short taxi ride away. Special price on Tequila cause that is what Happy likes. So come on out and celebrate the h3sob's oldest traditional hash.
